The Missionary offering this month is for Derek & Heidi Malcolm who are working on behalf of believers in Turkey and amongst Turkish immigrants in Glasgow.

18 April was 10th anniversary of 3 Christian workers in Malatya's martyrdom. A memorial service was held and the widow of one of the foreign workers killed shared how the Lord has enabled her to stay on in Turkey with her children. Pray for Susanne and the only church there in a city of 500,000. After a recent election the President was given sweeping new powers which could make the country more divided and this has led to heightened anxiety among the believers. More foreign Christian workers are having their residence permits revoked or not renewed. One was arrested last October and is still in prison with no sign of a trial.
More encouragingly, 1000 believers met for 'Resurrection Day' celebration on Easter Saturday and more people all over Turkey are enquiring about the Christian faith. Derek's publishing work continues with 8 new commentaries published in 2016. He plans to visit Istanbul in June & asks us to pray for that visit.

Ladies Connect Tuesday 16 May

Walk and Talk @ James Hamilton Loch .

Meet in car park at Loch at 7pm.

(Weather permitting) then back to WWH for lite supper and our Summer Reading Launch
