The offering for MAY is for DEREK & HEIDI MALCOLM who are service with Echoes of Service on behalf of the believers in Turkey. Derek visited Istanbul in February when he was able to meet with his Turkish colleague in their publishing ministry. In spite of considerable difficulties they have been able to complete another 12 Bible commentaries this year. Their aim is to produce a commentary of every book in the Bible in Turkish. Their total so far is 52. It is vital that the growing church is equipped with good resources which can now be digitally downloaded from their website. Turkey is in the news a lot and we need to pray for the country, especially in the run up to the snap election being held on 24 June. The believers are very concerned and especially over the plight of Andrew Brunson, a church leader, who as been in prison since October 2016 on charges of being part of a terrorist group and sedition. He is due in court again on 7 May. Please pray for his release and for Derek as he visits again from 23 May to 1st June. Heidi continues her regular visitation with Turkish speak families in the Glasgow area. Both are grateful for our prayers and support.

Advance notice

Thursday Men's Group have stopped for summer break but on Wednesday 13 June they are visiting New Lanark. Please meet at Church at 11.00 am

Please remember the work of the EK Food Bank and donate when possible. Stocks are low on all items except pasta, beans and soup.

Bible Course is continuing on Tuesday evenings at 7.30pm. All welcome to join with them.
